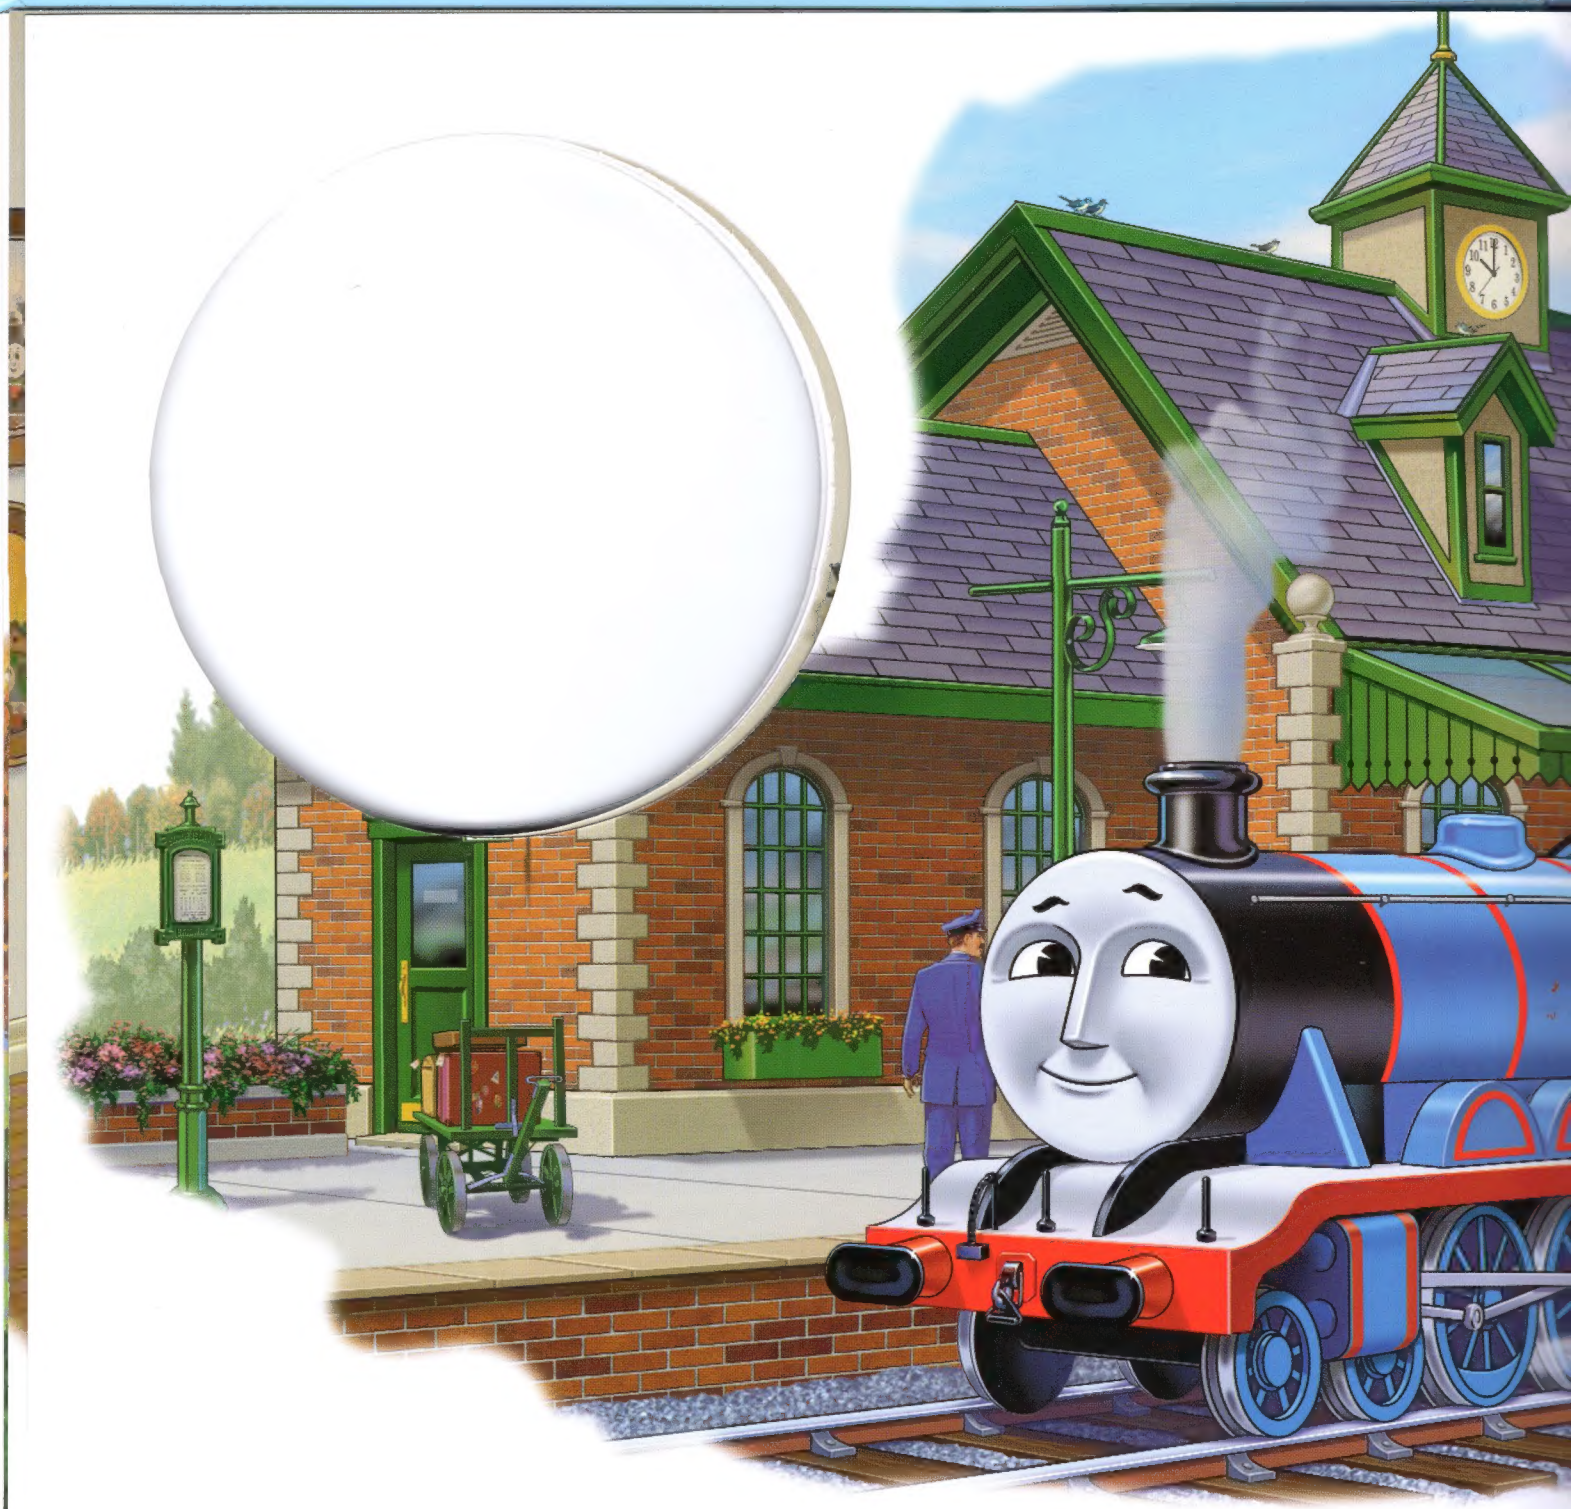
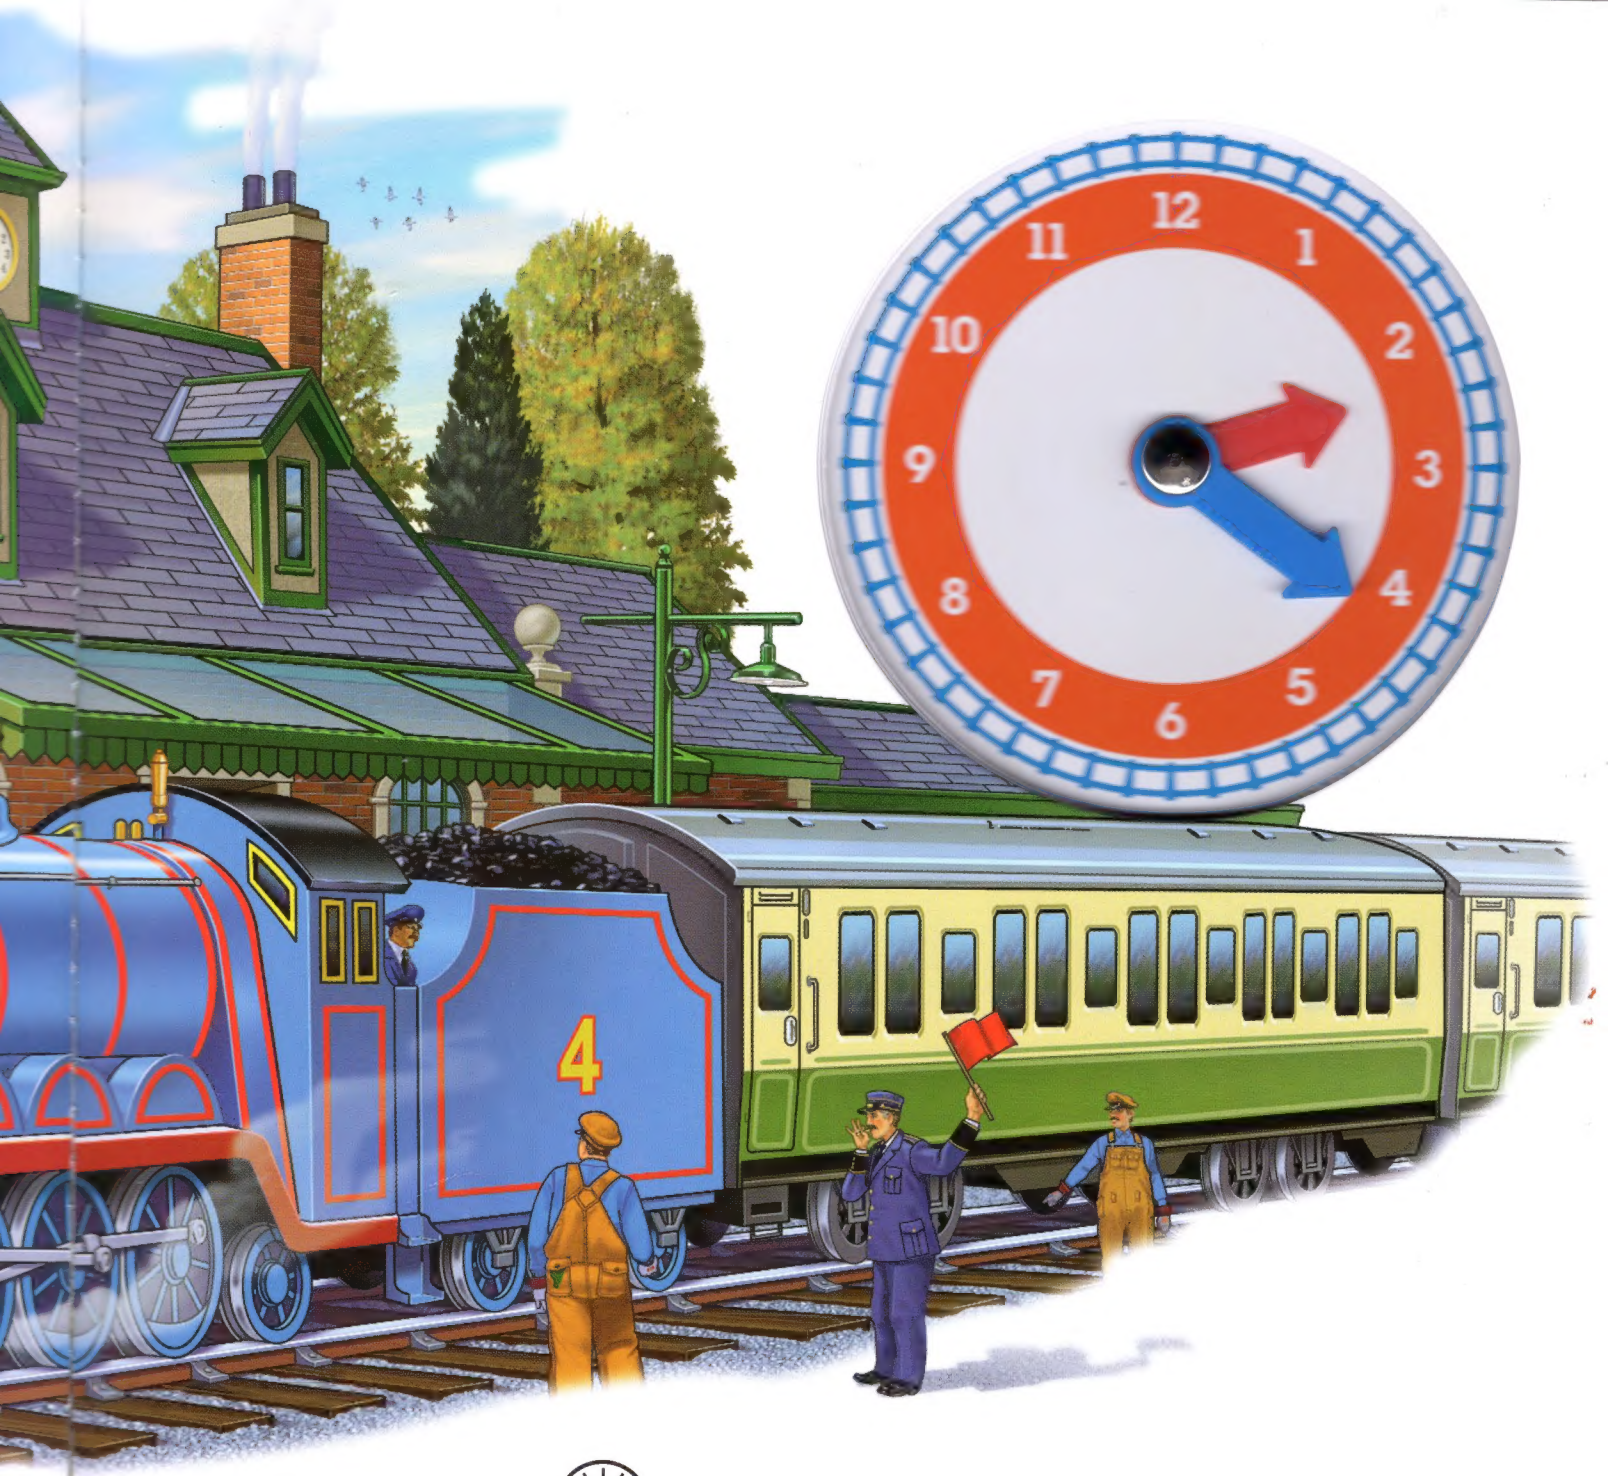
At 7 o'clock Thomas starts out on his first journey of the day with Annie and Clarabel.

Sir Topham Hatt reaches his office by 9 o'clock.

He has a cup of coffee before he starts to read the pile of letters waiting for him.



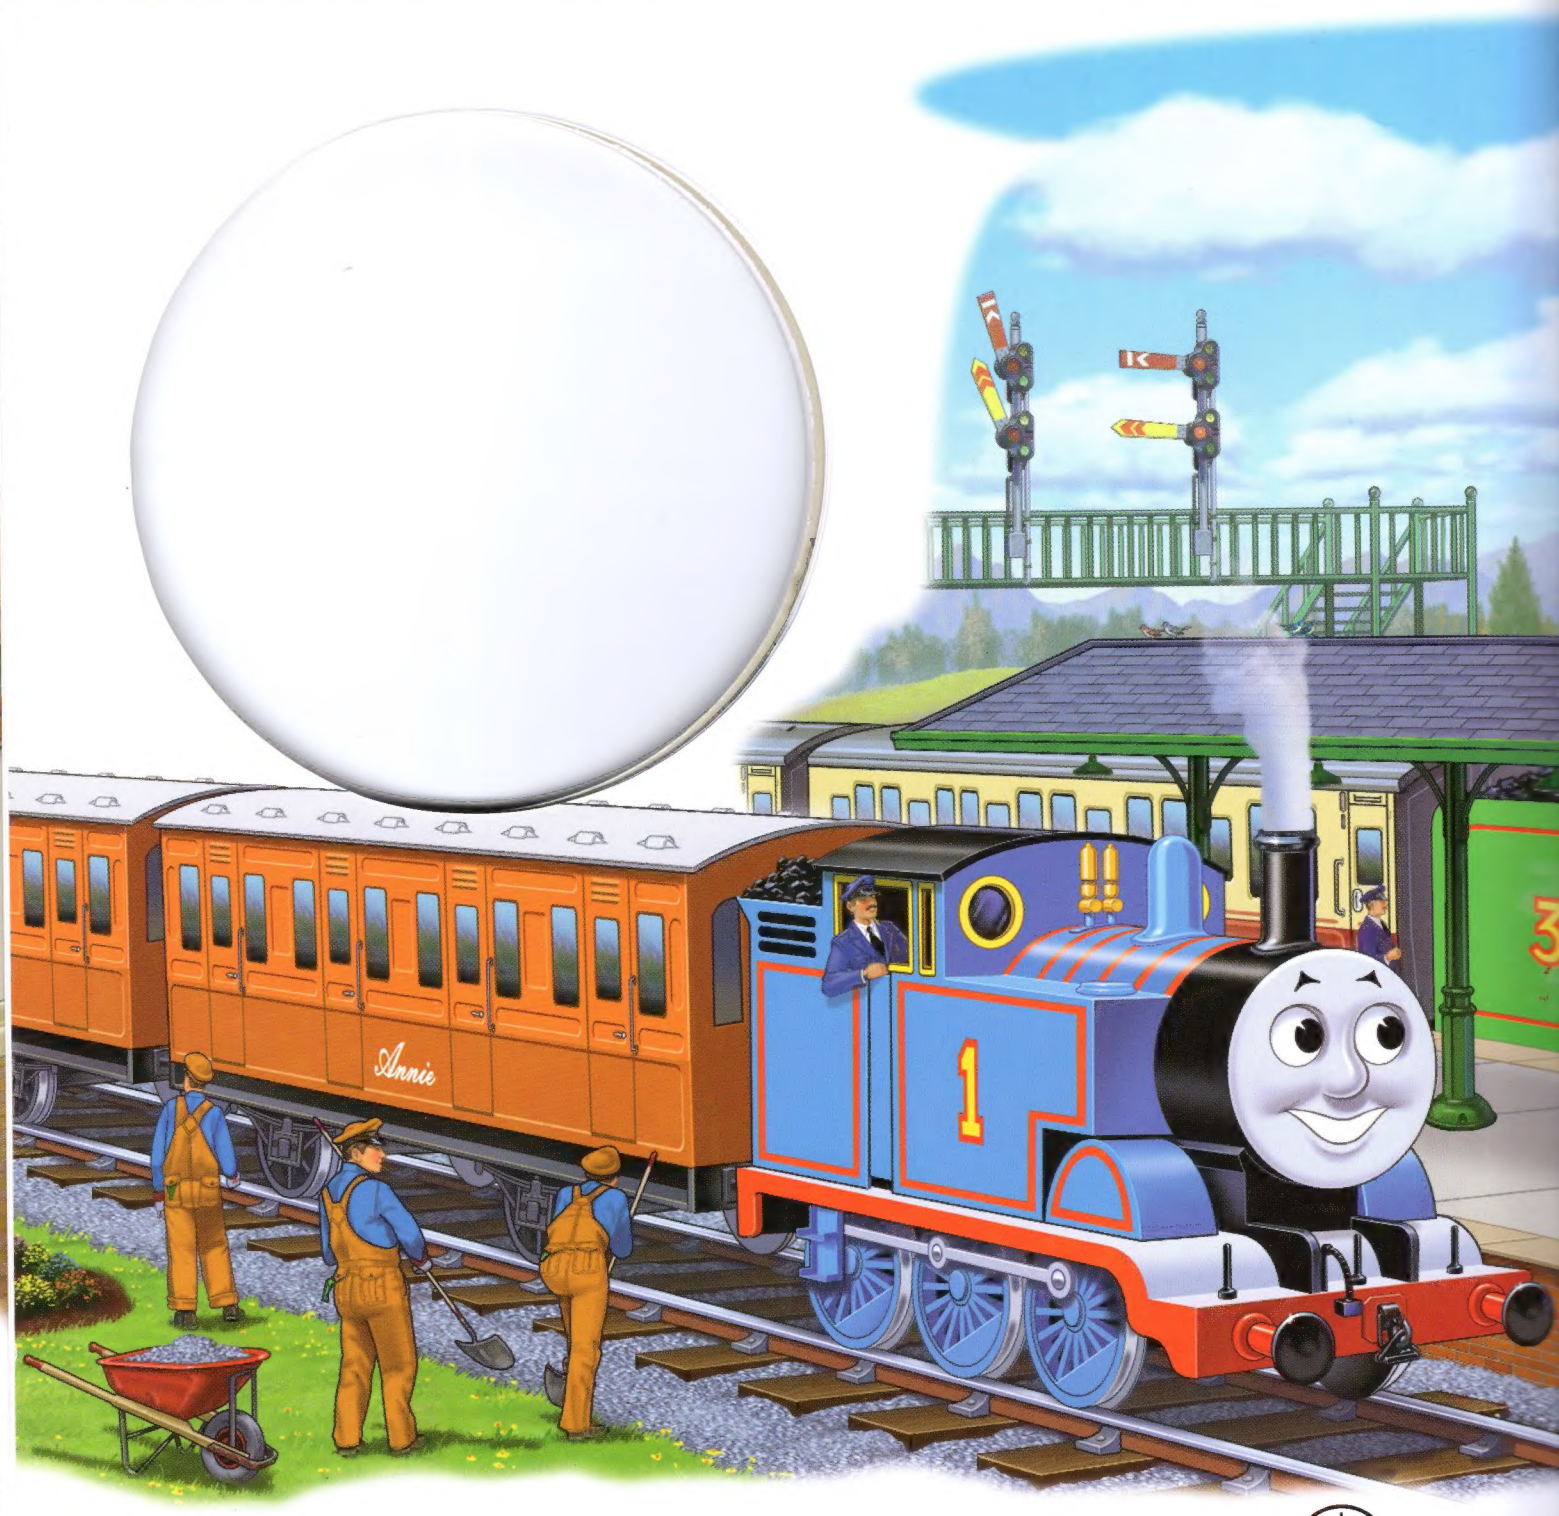
From his window, Sir Topham Hatt can see Gordon the Big Engine ready to pull the Express.



At 10 o'clock the conductor blows his whistle and waves his flag, and Gordon starts off down the line.

At 11 o'clock Percy collects some freight cars.

As he passes the airfield, he toots "hello" to Harold the Helicopter.

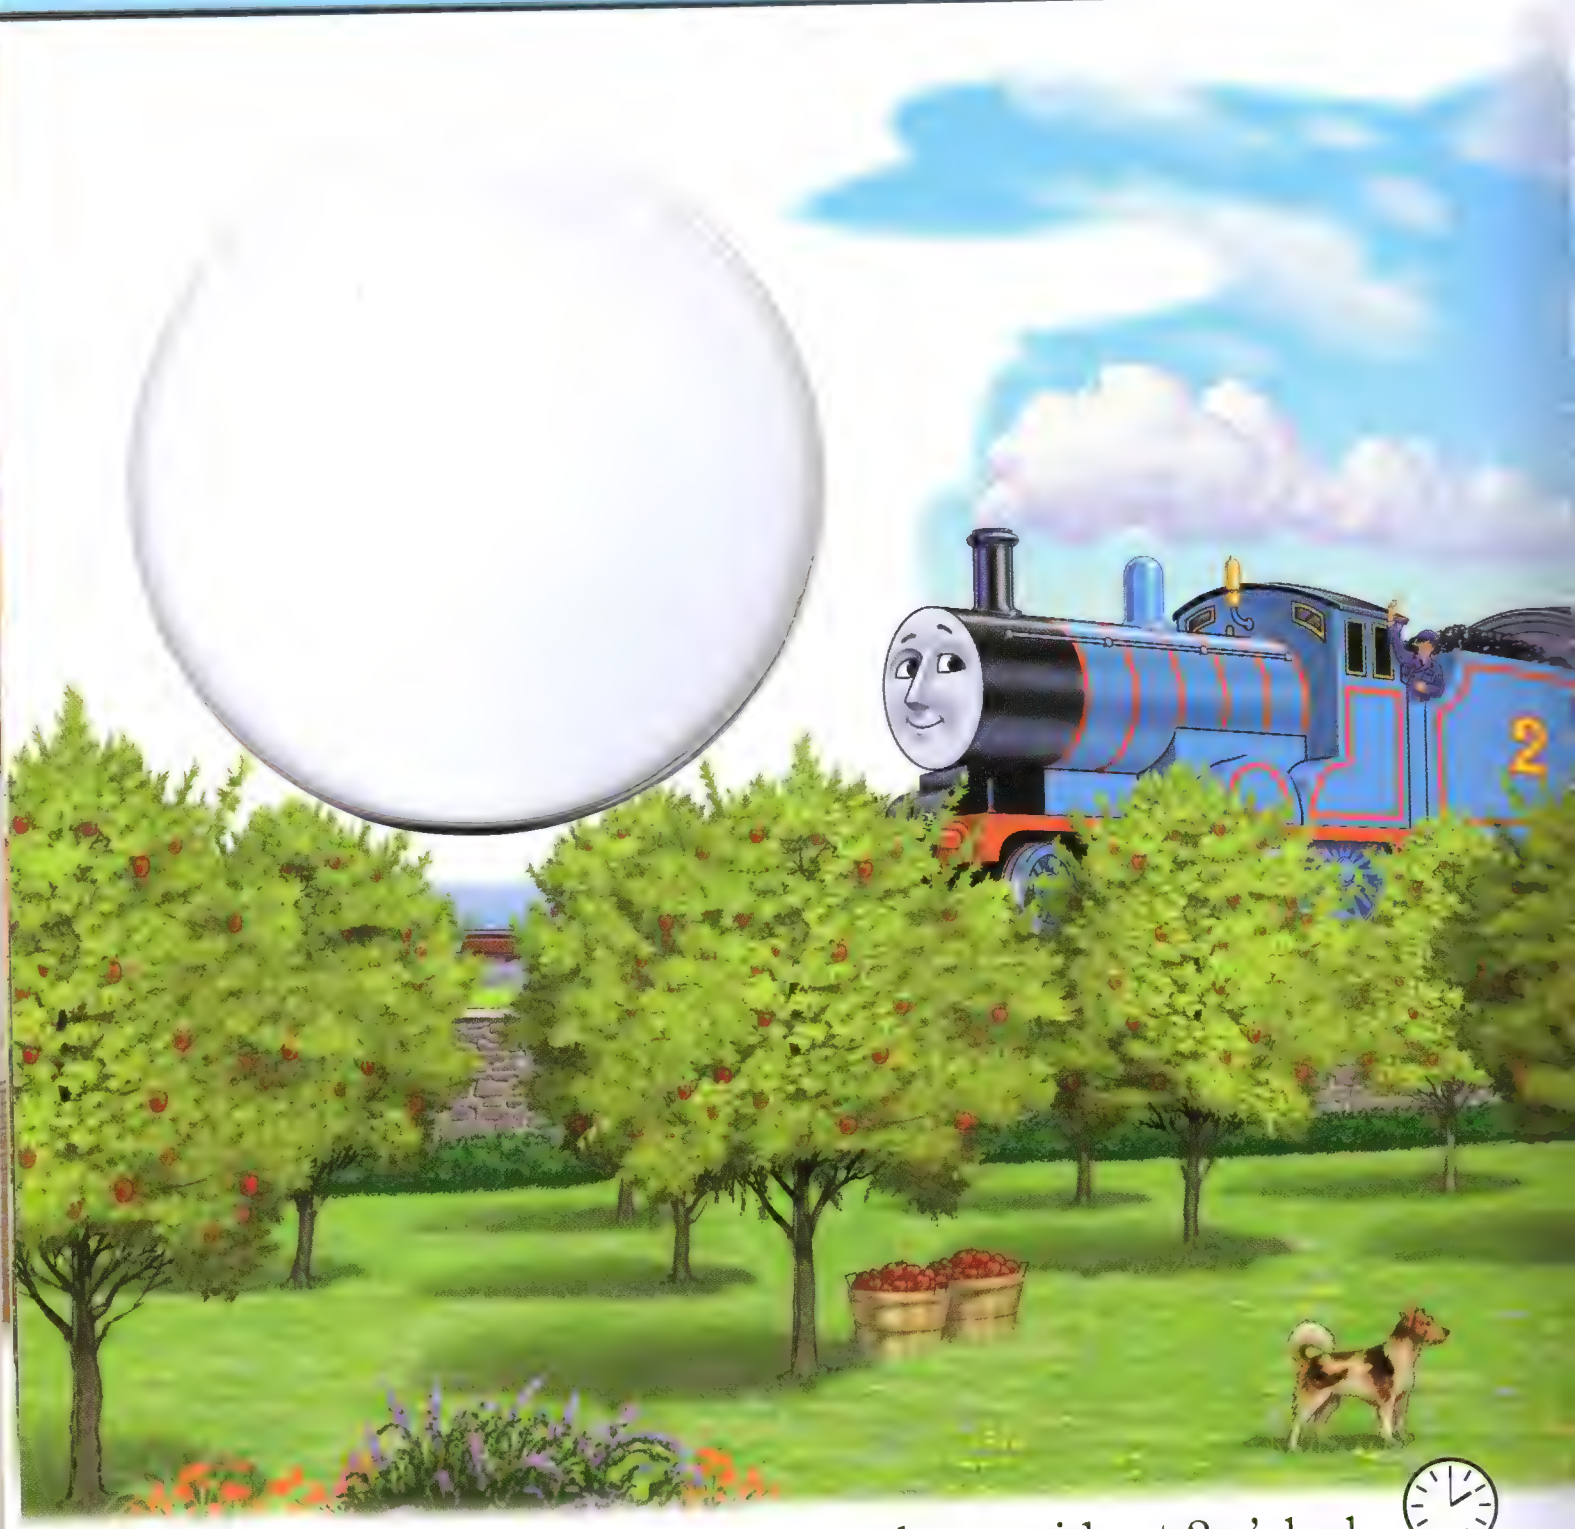


Thomas arrives at the junction at 12 o'clock noon.

Henry the Green Engine is at the next platform.

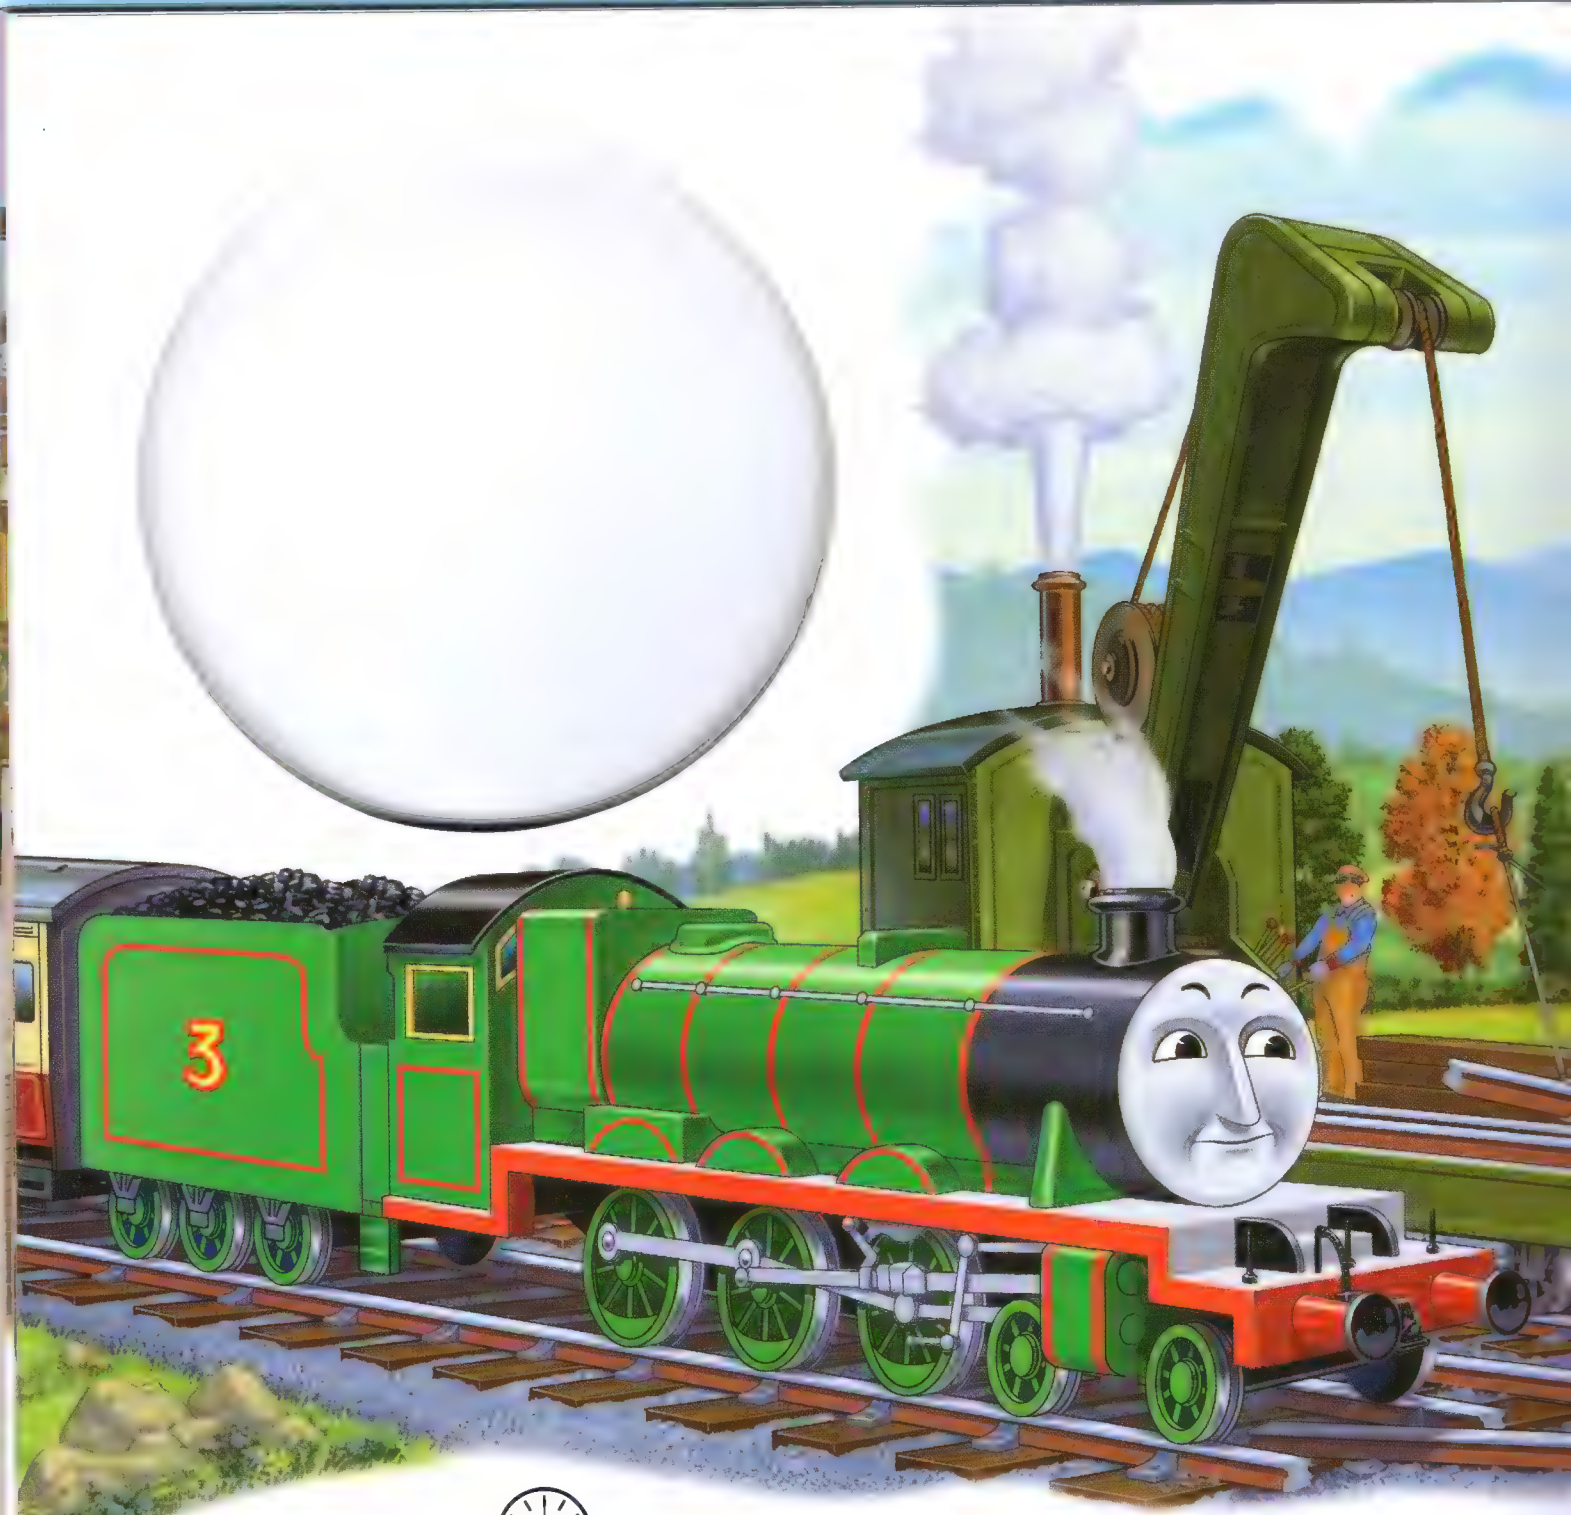
Toby and Henrietta have had a busy morning.

At 1 o'clock Toby stops for a drink of water.
His Driver and Fireman have some sandwiches and tea.



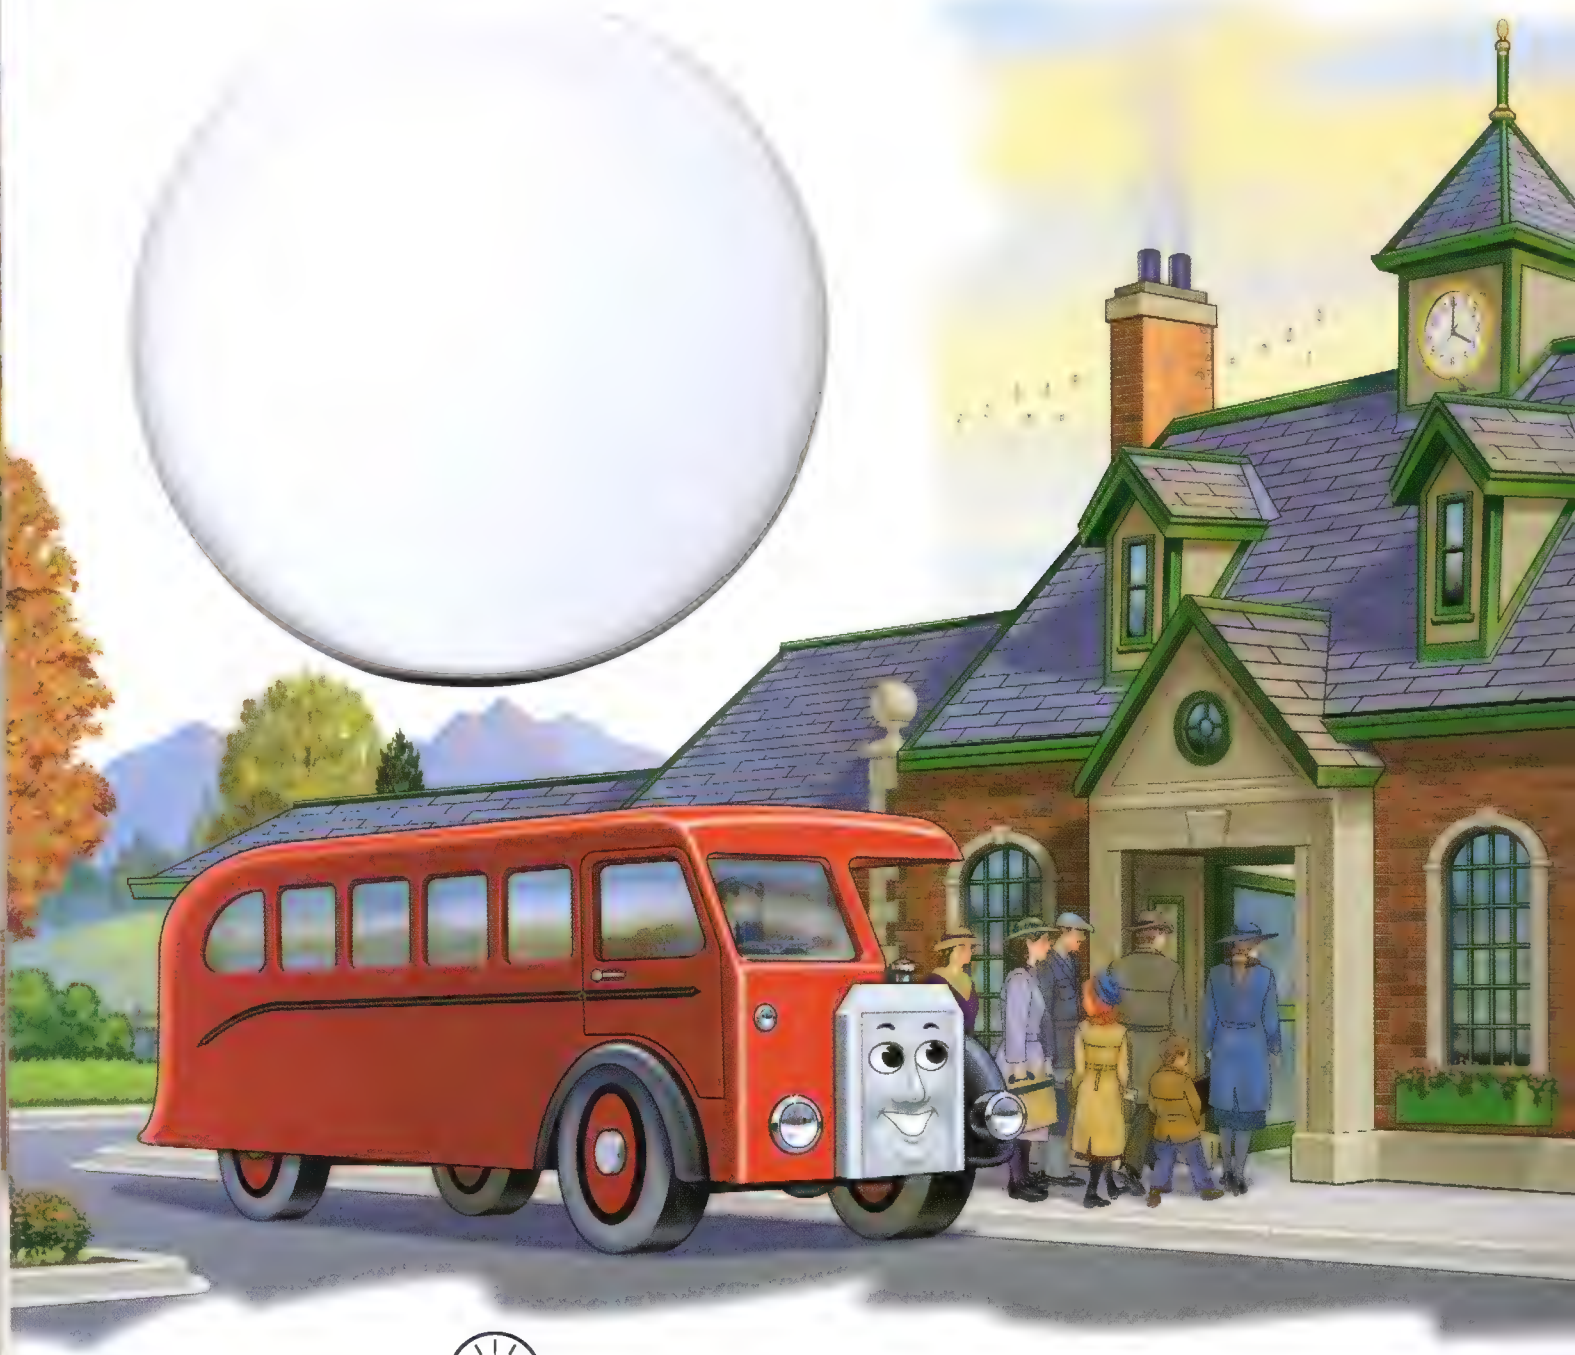
Edward is taking some children to the seaside at 2 o'clock.

As he puffs down the line, his Driver waves to Trevor the Traction Engine. Trevor is sawing logs in the orchard.



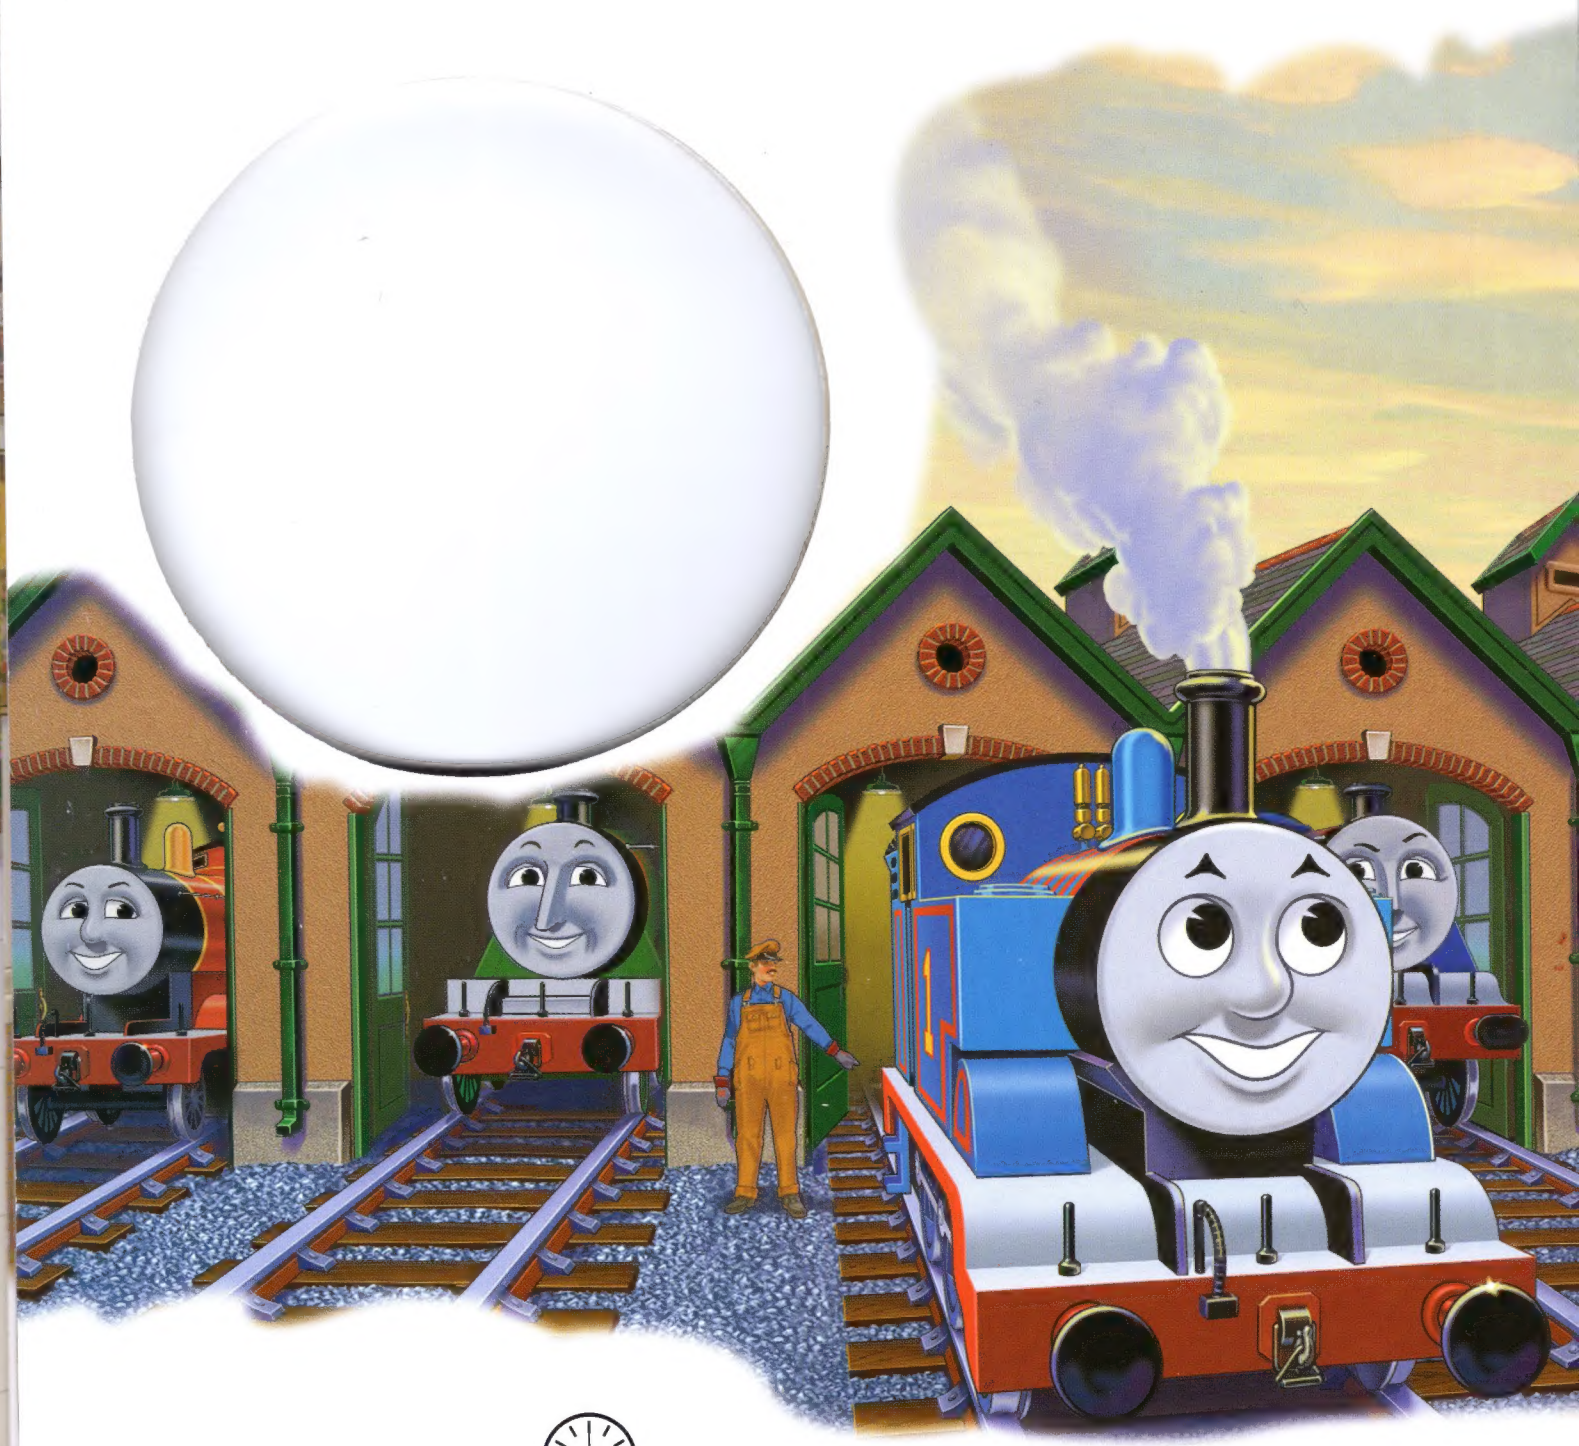
At 3 o'clock Henry is on time and going well . . .
until he comes to a fault in the track.

Thomas comes to his rescue with the breakdown train.
Poor Henry—now he will be late.



At 4 o'clock Bertie the Bus brings some passengers to the station.

Thomas takes the people on to town. His coaches are very full.



At 5 o'clock Thomas makes his last journey before going to the Shed for the night.

By 6 o'clock all the engines are asleep.
